About the Performer

Simone Browne is a carillonneur originally from Tucson, Arizona, who currently lives in New York City. She developed a love of music from a young age and played the cello for 11 years. After moving to Chicago, Illinois for college in 2015, Simone fell in love with the carillon and became a member of the University of Chicago Guild of Carillonneurs, studying carillon with Joey Brink. She graduated from the University of Chicago in 2019, then spent a year living in Chernivtsi, Ukraine through the Fulbright program, teaching English and visiting Ukrainian carillonneurs. With the support of the Belgian American Educational Foundation (BAEF), she studied as a BAEF fellow at the Royal Carillon School “Jef Denyn” in Mechelen, Belgium, from 2020 to 2022. After graduating “with great distinction” in June 2021, she remained at the carillon school for an additional post-graduation year, specializing in finding, arranging, and performing music composed by women. Simone researches carillon culture and enjoys learning languages in her spare time. She has performed on carillonneurs in Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Norway, Lithuania, Denmark, the US, and Ukraine.
