Course Description and Objectives

Collaboration at the piano demands not only mastery of the skill set we refine daily in the practice room – solidity of pulse, a beautiful tone, technical ease – but also that we deploy these skills in perfect coordination with others. For two or more musicians to breathe, think, and interpret as one is our goal; collaborative playing is a great challenge, but the rewards can be great, too.

In this course, students will gain initial experience accompanying a wide range of instrumental and vocal literature. We will explore the imitation of orchestral effects at the keyboard in genres such as concerto and opera, interpret text through the study of art song, and master the fundamentals of collaboration such as cueing and rehearsal etiquette.

Students will be paired with another instrumental or vocal major for focused collaboration. Several groups will perform weekly in class and the semester will culminate in a final class recital.

Assignments

During the first week of the semester, students will be assigned a collaborative partner. It is the pianist's responsibility to obtain the music they will learn and have the piano part fully prepared (or a portion of it, in case of large-scale works) by January 23rd. The remainder of the semester will be comprised of piano-only or duo coachings. Each duo will have 2-3 coachings.

Students must attend two performances featuring collaborative piano and submit programs. Several are listed above under "Important Dates"; feel free to ask about other events that may be eligible.

Final performances will be held in a recital on April 18. This should be treated as a formal performance, including recital attire. Class will still meet April 25.

Attendance

Students are required to attend each week. One unexcused absence will not negatively impact a student's grade, but each additional unexcused absence will result in a half-letter deduction from the student's semester grade. Students are expected to arrive on time and stay for the entire class. Each student will be granted one tardy arrival (after 9:40am) without penalty, after which point every two subsequent tardy arrivals will receive the same penalty as one unexcused absence.

Expectations

Students will prepare thoughtfully for each class, practice assigned repertoire (!!!), and communicate with the instructor in a timely and professional manner. Please check email daily and read all messages carefully.

Grading

Students will be graded on a 100-point scale according to the following rubric:

Attendance:	4 points per class meeting (60 total points possible)
Recital attendance:	7 points each (14 points total)
Coachings:	20 points (average taken)
Final performance:	10 points possible
Total:	104 total points possible

Students must complete a minimum of two coachings (at least one individual and one with a duo partner) and the final performance in order to pass the course. Students who do not complete two coachings will receive a grade of E, and those who do not complete the final performance will receive a grade of E. An Incomplete may be assigned at the instructor's discretion only if the final performance is missed due to emergency and a makeup cannot be arranged before the end of the semester. An Incomplete will not be assigned due to a student failing to complete two coachings.

Students may inquire about their standing in the class at any point during the semester.

Grading Scale

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points may be found here:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>

Concert attendance

Students are strongly encouraged to attend on-campus performances by students, faculty, and/or guest artists featuring collaborative piano.

Required Materials

Musical excerpts we will use in our assignments and mock rehearsals will be posted on Canvas and/or distributed in class or via email. Students are expected to print and organize these in a three-ring binder. Students are expected to own a hard copy (not just a printout, even of music in the public domain) of all assigned repertoire for coachings with their partner.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>
