DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

This course addresses various problems and issues associated with student teaching with an emphasis on teaching methods, classroom management and assessment as they arise from actual classroom practice. In addition to attending periodic seminar meetings, students are expected to compile a teaching portfolio that demonstrates accomplishment of the six (6) Florida Educator Accomplished Practices. Coreq: ARE 4940(9-11 credit)

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

This course is taught in conjunction with ARE 4940 Student Teaching. The practical problems and immediate concerns of the students determine to a large extent the actual topical content of the course. Emphasis is placed on sharing, constructive criticism, and mutual support during the student teaching experience.

In addition to dealing with practical issues and problems associated with student teaching, this course also involves preparation for seeking employment as an art teacher in the public schools. This aspect of the course covers such matters as writing a resume, letter of application, and preparing for the FTCE exam as well as the job interview experience. At the completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate the six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices at the pre-professional level as indicated in a personal teaching portfolio. (FEAPS 1 Instructional Design and Lesson Planning; FEAPS 2 The Learning Environment; FEAPS 3 Instructional Delivery and Facilitation; FEAPS 4 Assessment; FEAPS 5 Continuous Professional Improvement; and FEAPS 6 Professional Responsibility & Ethical Conduct)
- Reflect on the successes of his/her instructional decisions based on assessments of individual and group performance (FEAP 4 Assessment).
- Prepare a letter of application and resume for seeking employment as a public school art teacher (FEAP 5 Continuous Professional Improvement).
- Document and assess student work and achievements through written records as well as with photographic and digital devices (FEAP 1 Instructional Design and Lesson Planning).
- Reflect on a field experience in teaching through an electronic weekly log/journal (FEAPS 5 Continuous Professional Improvement)
- Construct a resume generic letter of application (FEAPS 5 Continuous Professional Improvement)

SCHEDULE FOR THE COURSE

Students planning to student teach must attend an orientation seminar during the last week of the semester preceding their student teaching semester. Approximately four meetings are scheduled during the student teaching period in which all student teachers return to campus for group seminar. Following student teaching, weekly seminar sessions focus on resume construction, job-seeking strategies, preparation for the FTCE exam, and portfolio construction.

REQUIREMENTS OF THE COURSE

Students enrolled in this course are required to:

- (1) Successfully complete student teaching (ARE 4940);
- (2) Attend all seminar meetings;
- (3) Complete a student-teaching orientation module;
- (4) keep a weekly electronic log/journal during student teaching ,
- (5) Document their students' work and performance through photographic and digital means;

- (6) Maintain an archive of self-generated lesson plans;
- (7) Construct a resume generic letter of application; and
- (8) Construct a teaching portfolio that demonstrates their accomplishment of the six (6) Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs).

REQUIRED TEXT: There is a required course package. Any additional course resources and handout are available through the course eLearning site.

EVALUATION AND GRADING:

Final grades will be based on the timely completion of all requirements for the course. Final grades will be determined according to the following scale:

GRADING SCALE: 95-100 A; 92-94 A-; 88-91 B+; 85-87 B; 80-84 B-; 77-79 C+; 74-76 C; 70-73 C-; 67-69 D+; 63-66 D; 60-62 D-; 0-59 E. To determine the impact of grades on GPAs: www.registrar.ufl.edu/catalog/policies/regulationgrades.html.

See <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx> for additional information on UF grading policies. Please Note: A grade of C- or below will not count toward major requirements.

Students must successfully pass a review of their teaching portfolios to receive a passing grade for the course.

ATTENDANCE: Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the requirements to be eligible for certification. Attendance is mandatory and a full 11 weeks of student teaching must be completed to be eligible for teaching certification in Florida. Please refer to the UF policy on attendance.

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences>

POLICY RELATED TO LATE WORK: Other than medical or personal emergencies, no extensions will be given for class requirements due to the nature of the internship. Students should inform the instructor beforehand, if circumstances prevent course requirements from being completed an agreement in writing for any extensions must be made in consultation with UF and School Placement Supervisor. Work turned in beyond a deadline will lose 10% of its full point value and MUST be submitted within one week of deadline for any credit. Students should inform the instructor beforehand, if circumstances prevent work from being turned in on time and reach an agreement in writing for any extensions. Late work will lose 10% of its points and will not be accepted beyond 1 week of deadline without prior permissions or extenuating circumstances.

PROFESSIONALISM: Teacher professionalism contains three essential characteristics; competence, performance, and conduct—all of which directly impact the teacher’s effectiveness. You will receive a grade on professionalism in this class based on your engagement in class discussions and project work, as well as your demonstrated interest in learning, preparedness each lesson, completion of all class assignments, dependability, consideration of others, and contributions to our learning community.

Professionalism is the expectation to demonstrate behaviors that reflect a commitment to continuous professional abilities and development, ethical practice, and a responsible attitude toward recipients, the profession, and society. It becomes especially critical in the internship context, and it includes respect, compassion, integrity and altruism in relationships with students, colleagues and other stakeholders. Professionalism includes a sensitivity and responsiveness to gender, age, culture, religion, sexual preference, socioeconomic status, and beliefs. With teaching comes responsibility to adhere to principles of confidentiality, scientific/academic integrity, and accountability. Finally, no one has all the answers, so it is important to recognize and identify limitations as well as possibilities in deficiencies in personal and peer performance and assist when possible.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY: Students are expected to abide by the UF Academic Honesty Policy, which defines an academic honesty offense as “the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage.” In the context of this class, this includes properly citing sources for any materials (both printed and online) used in completing course assignments. UF Academic Honesty <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/judicial/academic.php>.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND HONESTY CODES:: Students are expected to abide by the UF Academic Honesty Policy, which defines an academic honesty offense as "the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage." In the context of this class, this includes properly citing sources for any materials (both printed and online) used in completing course assignments. <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/students/student-conduct-code/>

Proper citation formats of APA or MLA. All images and text from the Internet, journals, or books must have full APA citation to be used in your work. APA Style | Electronic References <http://www.apastyle.org/elecref.html>

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Individuals with disabilities must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities and submit to this instructor the memorandum from that office concerning necessary accommodations. The ADA office is located in Room 232 Stadium (phone: 392-7056). All course materials are available in alternative format upon request. UF Disabilities Resource Center <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>

COUNSELING SERVICES: The Counseling and Wellness Center <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/> provides counseling and consultation services to currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students and their spouses/partners. The Center offers brief counseling and therapy to help students confront personal, academic, and career concerns. The primary goal of counseling is to help students develop the personal awareness and skills necessary to overcome problems and to grow and develop in ways that will allow them to take advantage of the educational opportunities at the university.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATION PROCESS: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Faculty does not receive the results until after the grades have been finalized. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>

Key Task

The State of Florida requires all entry-level educators to demonstrate mastery of six (6) Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs) at the pre-professional level. In this course, we will pay particular attention to the following Accomplished Practices and indicators of your mastery of those practices.

Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs)

The six(6) Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs) are identified below; each Indicator has associated language to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility. For more information, please visit the Educator Assessment System Student Portal at: <https://my.education.ufl.edu/>.

1. Instruction Design and Lesson Planning

- Critical Thinking: Uses appropriate techniques and strategies which promote and enhance critical, creative, and evaluative thinking capabilities of students.
 - Diversity: Uses teaching and learning strategies that reflect each student's culture, learning styles, special needs, and socio-economic backgrounds.

TEACHING PORTFOLIO RATING FORM

Directions: Each of the following Accomplished Practices is followed by a list of indicators. Check any and all indicators that you find evident in the student's portfolio to help you decide if the student is demonstrating competency in each practice. When determining the student's rating in each category, consider the overall consistency and quality of the indicators found, rather than the total number of indicators checked.

Use the following scale to rate the candidate's evidence of overall competence in each area: 0 - No evidence provided. Unable to evaluate competence; 1 -Evidence of competence is inconclusive and unsatisfactory; 2 - Evidence of developing competence. Needs improvement; 3 - Evidence demonstrates an accomplished level of competence; 4 - Evidence demonstrates exceptional performance and competence.
