TPP 3103: Acting 2 – Analysis and Application Sec. 8135 & 813U

Spring 2024 / MWF Period 7 (1:55-2:45) Con. Rm. G12

Dr. Mikell Pinkney / Office: 222 McGuire Pavilion / 273-0512 / mpinkney@arts.ufl.edu

Office Hours: M & R. 1:00-5:00 PM by appointment

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

In general, Acting 2 seeks to train the actor to present a distinct and believable character; it introduces the multiplicity and complexity of the actor's concerns. Emphasis is on the analysis of character and its application to performance.

Course requirements and arrangements vary according to size of class, level of expertise, extent of experience, and other considerations. Acting courses must be practical. Therefore, the content of the class is largely determined by individual needs and problems.

Practical exercises in the performance of monologues and scenes, evaluated and analyzed by students and instructor, comprise the principal material of the course.

REQUIRED TEXT:

Moore, Sonya. A Simplified Guide to Stanislavski's Teachings. ISBN: 978-1-4995294-9-4

ATTENDANCE: IS MANDATORY. This is a performance class, and your classmates depend on your reliable presence. If you must miss a class, for any reason, please talk to me beforehand. Also, keep your scene partner apprised of any rehearsal problems. The instructor WILL factor any absences into a final grade. Specifically; 5 points will be deducted from Attendance grade for each absence. All attendance points will be reduced to "0" when students miss more than three (3) classes during the semester.

Participation. takes many forms in this class and is unquestionably your most important overall contribution. The first essential condition of making the class useful and pleasurable for yourself and others is to be in the classroom on time, and to take a few minutes of concentration, meditation, or warm-up before class starts, so that you are ready to work. Your participation as audience, listener, critic, and friend is important even if you are not presenting or performing on a given day.

Character Analysis. All monologue and scene work will need to be analyzed with details of background story, or exposition, and given circumstances of the characters within the environment(s) of the actions and world of the plays. This means reading the FULL PLAY. Use the guidelines provided from Uta Hagen (provided) to outline this process. Students are encouraged to read other plays identified in the SOTD Student Handbook at:

<http://www.arts.ufl.edu/theatreanddance/pages/whatyouneed/downloads/2007-2008Handbook.pdf>

Journal. Keep an acting journal for the entire semester. Your instructor will need to see your journals a few times during the semester. Record your work in preparation for performance, the workshop, in class presentations, feedback and your reactions to and evaluations of your own work in class, as well as that of others. The journal is confidential, so you should be frank. Handwritten journals are best. However, if you use a computer, please copy and place information in a folder or binder before turning it in.

Performance Work. Each student will prepare and present 1-2 monologues and one partnered scene in this class. Each of these will be presented in class 2-3 times. The first showing does not have to be off book. The second will be fully memorized, rehearsed and ready for coaching with the instructor. The third is a final polished showing for grading.

A character analysis for your work is due at the second showing (use the Uta Hagen “Six Steps” sheet). Analysis work will be critiqued but not individually graded. The performance grade will be an aggregate of your analysis and your measurable progress at the final presentation. Please keep an organized binder, which should include your complete work on all your class notes, monologues, scenes, feedback and journal notes. This binder will be reviewed at mid-term and at the end of the semester.

GRADING:

Attendance/ Participation.....	25%
Play/ Character Analysis (3).....	15%
Journal/ Developmental Notes.....	20%
Preparation and Performance.....	50%
(10% for each monologue and 15% for each partnered scene)

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE:

It is expected that students abide by the Academic Honor Code passed by the Student Senate and "neither give nor receive unauthorized aid" in the preparation of any assignment. See full code in UF Undergraduate Catalog for in the SoTD online Student Handbook at:

<http://www.arts.ufl.edu/theatreanddance/pages/whatyouneed/downloads/2007-2008Handbook.pdf>

COURSE CALENDAR:

The week-to-week class schedule will evolve and adjust according to the needs and limitations of the class as a whole. Flexibility with presentation schedules may need adjustments for the achievement of a course goas. Workshops of performance work is needed for clearer understanding of principles of “being in the moment” and the realities of learning to work with true “given circumstances.”

HELPFUL HINTS AND MOTTOS

"You get no pity in the pit!"

"Excuses don't get results"

"Mediocrity is excellence, only to the mediocre"

"The 7 Pz: Previous Prior Preparation Prevents Pitiful Poor Performance!"

"Tend well to your own business and leave other people's business alone!"

CELL PHONES AND COMPUTERS! TURN THEM OFF BEFORE EACH CLASS!

Sorry, no computer use allowed during class time! Class notes should be handwritten and may be transferred to computers outside of class if desired.

Students with Disabilities/ Special Accommodations:

The instructor will make every attempt to accommodate students with disabilities. Students with disabilities requesting accommodation should first register with the Disability Resource Center/ DRC (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter that must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Academic Honesty:

As a result of completing the registration from at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement:

"I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University."

The instructor of this course fully supports the intent of the above statement and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. We, the members of the University of Florida Community, pledge to hold ourselves, and our peers, to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. Lectures given in this class are the property of the faculty member and may not be taped without prior permission from the instructor and may not be used for any commercial purpose. Students found to be in violation may be subject to discipline under the University's Student Conduct Code.

The university's policies regarding academic honesty, the honor code, and student conduct related to the honor code will be strictly enforced. Full information regarding these policies is available at the following link:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/advising/info/student-honor-code.aspx>

PLEASE REMEMBER!:

This course should provide the principles and foundations on which all work in your other major courses will be based. It is highly recommended that you adjust your outside endeavors and party time accordingly!

Because of time issues related to the due date of each assignment, and the obligations for grading and returning your projects, there may be no late assignments and no additional opportunities for make-up assignments at the end of the semester. If you take things seriously you will certainly feel very proud and capable as a result!!!

The Six Steps

1. WHO AM I?

What is my present state of being?
How do I perceive myself?
What am I wearing?
How old am I?
What are my values?

2. WHAT ARE THE CIRCUMSTANCES?

What time is it? (The year, the season, the day? At what time does my selected life begin?)

Where am I? (In what city, neighborhood, building, and room do I find myself? Or in what landscape?)

What surrounds me? (The immediate landscape? The weather? The condition of the place and the nature of the objects in it?)

What are the immediate circumstances? (What has just happened, is happening? What do I expect or plan to happen next and later on?)

3. WHAT ARE MY RELATIONSHIPS?

How do I stand in relationship, the circumstance, the place, the objects, and the other people related to my circumstances?

4. WHAT DO I WANT?

What is my main objective? My immediate need or objective?

5. WHAT IS MY OBSTACLE?

What is in the way of what I want? How do I overcome it?

6. WHAT DO I DO TO GET WHAT I WANT?

How can I achieve my objective? What's my behavior? What are my actions? What are my beat/bit strategies and tactics?
