

TPP2100: Acting for Non-Majors

Summer 2024

University of Florida/College of the Arts/School of Theatre & Dance

Section/Period: Section 4821, M,T,W,R,F Period 3, (11:00 AM to 12:15 PM)

Building/Room: CON G013 (Acting Studio)

Instructor: Teroy Roberts

Email: Roberts.Teroy@ufl.edu

Office/Office Hours Information: Via Zoom, by appointment

Course Catalog Description

The discipline and the creative process of acting: formal and improvisational techniques for developing vocal, physical, and analytical skills.

Course Objectives

- Students will demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, methodologies, and theories used within the discipline of acting.
- Students will communicate knowledge, ideas, and reasoning, clearly and effectively, in written and oral forms appropriate to the discipline of acting.
- Students will analyze information carefully and logically from multiple perspectives, using acting-specific methods and develop thoroughly reasoned solutions to problems.

Course Content

- Students will participate in exercises and activities during class designed to develop the skills and vocabulary required for acting performance.

- Students will present performance pieces for the class and are expected to have rehearsed and prepared each piece (monologues and/or scenes) thoroughly outside of class. There will be in-class discovery work, (at least) one workshop of each piece, and a final performance for each piece.
- Students will prepare written analysis work accompanying each piece. Analyses will strengthen their work in class and their understanding of methodologies and theories.
- Students will complete short writing assignments to show comprehension of the subject matter, which may include performance critique papers.
- Students may be asked to lead a warm-up for the class on a selected date.

Required Materials/Texts

- There is no required text for this course. There may be assigned readings and handouts for which students will be responsible. In addition, students will be responsible for reading and having a full understanding of all source material from which their monologues and scenes come. All class material should come from published work and must be approved by the instructor.
- Appropriate writing utensils: pencils, pens, highlighters, etc.
- Access to internet, email and Canvas/UF e-Learning for class information, updates, grades, and correspondence.
- Water bottle (recommended) to keep vocal apparatus and body hydrated.
- Appropriate apparel for class includes clothing and shoes that allow for unrestricted movement.

Critical Dates

July 2nd: Syllabus Contract Due and How Can I Help You Paper due

July 9th: Monologue Analysis Due

July 15th: Digital Theatre paper due

July 19th: Monologue Analysis 2

July 26th: Mock “Audition” for Staged Reading

July 29th: Scene Analysis 1

July 29th: The UF Production paper due

August 7th: Final Exam

August 9th: Final Presentation

Required Viewing

You will watch two (2) theatrical performances and author a two-page paper about each one. Guidelines will be provided.

One (1) critique will be viewed on Digital Theatre Plus, a subscription service provided free of charge to students at UF.

(<https://guides.uflib.ufl.edu/theatreguide>Links to an external site.). To access the Digital Theatre Plus subscription off-campus, you will first need to download the VPN from the UF website to access the platform, and instructions to do this are found under the FAQ section in the Canvas shell. Please reach out sooner rather than later if you are having trouble finding plays to watch. This is not something to troubleshoot at the last minute! Here also is the link with detailed instructions on how to download,

install, and run the

VPN: <https://it.ufl.edu/ict/documentation/network-infrastructure/vpn/Links> to an external site.

For the second critique, you must attend an in-person, live theatrical production at the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL. You have registered for a course meant for students in-residence at UF, and that is why this requirement is in place. Instructions on how to pick up your coupon and ticket voucher will be provided on Canvas under the paper guidelines ASAP. This summer, you will be viewing a play that has been created by UF (Name to come at a later date) which runs from July 18th through July 21st. Students must complete a two page, double spaced, 12-pt font, 1-in margin critique for each production, online PDF. Students will write about the acting choices made by two of the actors in the show, what was effective, what was not, how they employed different techniques, vocal, physical, etc. Please note that a critique is different from a plot summary, report, or synopsis. No late or emailed critiques will be accepted.

Ticket vouchers will be provided for the shows, but the student is responsible for paying handling fees (this amounts to $2.00). If the voucher is lost or stolen, it cannot be replaced.

Tickets will be available through the O'Connell Center Box Office/University Box Office. Please arrive to the show at least 10 minutes early. DO NOT BE LATE – you will not be let into the theatre once the show begins, and it is highly disrespectful to the actors and the audience! There are no other shows that can be substituted for seeing the required UF (University of Florida) productions. Lastly, please turn phones off during the show! NEVER take a call or text during a show...EVER!

Attendance Policy

Attendance will be taken daily at the beginning of each class. Due to the participatory nature of this course, attendance is MANDATORY. Students are expected to be in class on time and ready to work. Two unexcused absences are allowed. Upon the third unexcused absence, a deduction of 30 points will be reduced from the final attendance grade, and 30 points will be deducted for each additional absence thereafter. Please use these absences wisely, since absolutely no exceptions will be made for unexcused absences. There are NO make-up assignments for any unexcused absences. The ONLY excused absences allowed are religious holidays (student must write a letter stating such and provide it to the instructor at least one week prior to the absence), medical emergency (accompanied by a doctor's note on letterhead) and mandatory school requirements (which must be approved by the instructor and a letter from the appropriate authority must be provided at least one week ahead of time). Failure to provide the appropriate documentation at least one week before an excused absence will result in an unexcused absence. Students must provide any missed assignments the following class period for an excused absence. Missed workshops or performances with an excused absence will be made up the following class period.

In addition, two tardies will be allowed. Upon the third tardy, 30 points will be deducted from the final attendance grade and 30 points for each additional tardy thereafter. Please note, it is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor after class of any late arrival, otherwise the student will receive an absence for the day.

Please be respectful to not enter the room while another student is performing.

Participation can only be evaluated if the student is in class and on time.

Late Assignments

No late or make-up assignments will be accepted without an excused absence.

Dress Code

Dress appropriately for an acting class. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes that allow you to move with ease. On final performance days, appropriate professional attire or costume are required.

Workshop Days

Students will be assigned (at least) one day to workshop their pieces in front of the class before their final performance days. Upon arrival, the student must have the following:

1. Two copies of the script (monologue or scene): one for the student and one for the instructor.
2. Any assigned written work including analyses (monologue/scene/character) and scoring for the instructor.
3. Display of thorough preparation and rehearsal; complete memorization is highly recommended since it creates more focused work.

4. Appropriate attire

Performance Days

Students will again be assigned a (final) day to perform their piece for the class. Upon arrival, the student must have the following prepared items:

1. A final, updated draft of all written work related to the project.
2. Display of thorough preparation and rehearsal. Workshop discussion, exploration discoveries, and other suggestions from the instructor and class should be fully integrated into the piece. The piece MUST be fully memorized.
3. Appropriate attire: thoughtfully costumed.

Extra Credit

In addition to the required productions, each student may attend ONE additional performance and write an extra credit critique. The show must be approved of by the instructor first. These performances can include, but are not limited to, productions at the Hippodrome Theatre, Florida Players, Across Town Rep, Gainesville Community Playhouse, Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, or any other acting performances that you may be interested in. The same guidelines for the required critiques apply to the extra credit critique.

Evaluation and Grading Breakdown

Class Participation in Daily Tasks	300
Class Attendance	200
How Can I help you paper	25

Monologue Analysis	50
Monologue Analysis 2	50
Syllabus Contract	25
Scene Analysis	50
Digital Theater Paper	100
UF Production Paper	100
Final Exam	50
Final Scene Presentation	50
Total Points	1000

Grading Scale:

A = 1000-940

A- = 939-900

B+= 899-870

B = 869-840

B- = 839-800

C+ = 799-770

C = 769-740

C- = 739-700

D+ = 699-670

D = 669-640

D- = 639-600

E = 599-0

Class Decorum and Conduct

When students are not working, they must give full attention to those who are working. Cell phones must be turned off or silenced before class begins. All notes will be handwritten. There is a ZERO TOLERANCE for cell phone use, lap top use, electronic devices, sleeping, eating, drinking anything but water, reading, working on other homework, disruptive talking etc. The instructor will exercise the right to remove any student from class who violates these policies, and they will receive a deduction of 20 points from their participation grade and an absence for the day. All student views must be respected. It is conceivable that some material chosen for class work could be objectionable to some members of the class. Though no material should be blatantly perverse or offensive, it would be foolish to presume that all students feel the same on all issues. Be considerate when choosing material and when providing feedback. Listen with an open mind. This has nothing to do with freedom of speech – it is about common courtesy, and each student must respect the cultures, lifestyles, and individual choices for their fellow classmates. This class is of an exploratory and experimental nature. Exercises require full participation and often a sense of humor and a sense of “play.” To foster a trusting and creative environment, respect for the instructor and fellow students is essential. If there are any questions or reservations, please contact the instructor immediately.

Academic Honesty

As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement:

“I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.”

The instructor of this course fully supports the above statement's intent and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. The members of the University of Florida Community pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. If a student cheats on a test or quiz or plagiarizes material (i.e., using someone else's words or ideas without attribution), they will automatically receive a failing grade in this class. Ignorance of the definition of plagiarism or the absence of intent to deceive does not constitute an acceptable defense in matters of scholarly dishonesty. Student guidelines for ethical behavior can be found at:

<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>

Special Accommodations

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office at 352-392-1261. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student, who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. If a student has a disability documented with the Disability Resource Center and wishes to discuss accommodation, please inform the instructor. If a student has a learning disability that has not been documented, contact the DRC (Disability Resource Center) at 352.392.8565 or accessuf@dso.ufl.edu. Counseling services are available at UF at 352-392-1575 or www.counsel.ufl.edu.

Syllabus Note

This syllabus is subject to change at the instructor's discretion. It is the student's responsibility to note any changes discussed and be familiar with the current syllabus.

SYLLABUS CONTRACT

I have carefully read over the TPP2100 - Acting for Non-Majors for Summer 2024 Syllabus. I AGREE to all the rules and regulations of the class as outlined in this syllabus. Please return this form to your instructor. This form serves as a contract between student and instructor.

PRINT NAME: _____

UF ID# _____

SIGNATURE: _____

DATE: _____