COURSE DESCRIPTION

SoTD's modern practice curriculum is designed to focus the intellectual and physical abilities of students—majors, minors, and non-majors—to embrace the demands of the 21st century artist. Each level builds the required historical, aesthetic, and biomechanical foundations for graduating as a major in our dance degree programs. Likewise, the minor or nonmajor must recognize the classes as a preprofessional training ground by meeting the objectives at the appropriate level. When every student brings into every class their discipline and motivation, they will be ready to meet and greet the following goals common to each respective level of technique.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To learn the essentials of contemporary modern dance and to experience it personally.
- To understand the major traditional aesthetic premises and development of contemporary modern dance.
- To develop an informed view of the interaction of art and society in the 20/21st Century.
- To develop fundamental technique and performance skills.
- Demonstrate growth and progression within the following five areas of evaluation:
  - o Self-awareness—the student demonstrates an ability to retain an awareness of self while integrating their movement into spatial relationships with other persons and groups.
  - o Transitional Skills—demonstrates an understanding and dynamic use of different types of phrasing with an ability to sequence a variety of movements into an extended phrase: recognizing and moving through transitions and demonstrating follow - through of movement impulses as appropriate.
  - o Performance Quality—observable growth as a performing artist both in class and on stage.
  - o Creative Risk-taking student dares to explore new territory.
- Overall Improvement—student demonstrates a clear positive progression throughout the semester.
- To explore the expressive and qualitative range of movement and performance.
- To empower the person/dancer/thinker/choreographer in each student.
- To get hands on experience with the creative process & production of contemporary dance

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

UF Absence Policy <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Class Attendance Guide:

- Mindful participation in each class meeting is the only way to meet the objectives of this course.
- Attendance, which is mandatory, means that when you enter the virtual classroom, you are present, alert, and contributing to the progress of the class every second.
- If you are not present when class begins you are marked late.
- In the case of extended health issues, refer to the Injury and Illness Policy in the SoTD 2023-24 Handbook (SoTD website) and included in this syllabus.

ABSENCES

Students can take 2 absences with no penalty. Documentation is not required for the first absence as it will be automatically excused. Each absence, after two, will be a 5-point deduction from the final grade, unless made up. (See make-up policy)

Note: To help organize accommodations, students should inform the instructor by the end of the second week of classes of religious observances of their faith that will conflict with class attendance this semester.

MAKE-UP POLICY

- You are responsible for all material covered during any absence
- There are no makeup options for more than 2 unexcused absences
- Absences from Written Exams, Quizzes, Mid-Terms, and/or Finals may only be made up with approved documentation
- To earn credit (amount of credit determined by the instructor) for an excused absence you must do two things:
  - 1) Immediately after your return to class, turn in approved/legal documentation to instructor. If you need the original documentation, the instructor will accept copies.
  - 2) Make-up the class with an approved assignment submitted on the required date. If the assignment is to attend another class as a make-up, it must be the same technical level, or lower; student must request permission of that instructor.

DRESS POLICY

- Attire which is form fitting & suitable for movement (Tights, Leotards, Leggings, Yoga type pants, form fitted sweatpants)
- No oversized clothing
- Shorts are not recommended
- Hair needs to be confined and out of the dancer's face (no hats)
- No large jewelry, including all non-stud earrings, necklaces & watches

Students not in compliance with the above requirements will be considered absent from class or points deducted at instructor's discretion.

STUDIO POLICIES

- No eating or drinking in the studio, besides water
- Please bring a water bottle to every class
- Electronic devices must be placed on mute and left out of sight during class
- Personal belongings should be pushed to the sides and out of the usable dancing space

Communication is very important. Please come to me with all questions and concerns throughout the semester. You can make an appointment or talk to me immediately before or after class about your progress or if you have any questions. If questions pertain to the information in this syllabus, I ask that you read your syllabus thoroughly before asking an intelligent question on clarification. You are encouraged to ask questions during class and if you need or want more feedback from the instructor, please do not be afraid to ask. Remember, unless you communicate and come to me directly, I will assume that you are satisfied and happy. I want you to have a great dance experience.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Participation (50 points)

Participation is a demonstration of involvement and commitment to learning, a willingness to be on time and present in class, and to contribute in group discussions. If a student is disruptive during class (talking, providing negative energy, or simply not participating) he/ she will lose participation points. These points can be deducted at the teacher's discretion.

Learning Community

As we cultivate our classroom practice, we will critically evaluate our thoughts, opinions, and assumptions. As a learning community, I ask that we collectively invest in an environment in which all class members feel empowered to physically and intellectually take risks, ask questions, experiment, and grow. Dance practices frequently intersect with the difficult and at times violent pasts and presents of inequalities related to race, gender, sexuality, class and ability. Feelings of discomfort can at times accompany new physical practices as well as ideas. I ask that, as part of your rigorous engagement with the course, you meet the material as best you can and allow others the space to do the same. Please consult with me should any questions or concerns around course content or dialogue arise.

- Online Learning Community: Our learning community includes communication outside of class. Your commitment to creating a positive learning community includes not only how you interact in class but also how you interact with and/or represent other members of our class online via in threaded discussions on Canvas, social media, and other platforms. Please use formal, respectful, and professional standards when corresponding with me and with each other via email and/or Canvas.
- Email: An email is not a text message nor a DM. Please begin emails with a formal greeting and avoid unprofessional colloquialisms. For UF guidelines on “netiquette”: <http://teach.ufl.edu/docs/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>

Late Policy

If a student arrives to class after the start time, the student will be considered tardy. Each tardy will result in a 1-point deduction. If a student is more than ten minutes late for a movement-based class, they must receive instructor permission to observe class. The student will write a one-page observation paper due at the beginning of the next class to receive attendance credit.

Observation Papers Observing class is only acceptable if the student is ill, injured, or tardy and gets instructor permission. If the student is observing class, they must take observation notes, which will be due by the end of the week via Canvas. These notes should not be a regurgitation of the steps performed in class but rather observations of what you learned as a witness to dance. Observation papers must be submitted via Canvas in the “Participation/ Observation Papers” module by Sunday (midnight) the same week. The student is only permitted to observe class up to ONE time during the semester

Online quizzes (20 points)

There will be two online quizzes that cover course modules, videos, and in-class discussion. An exam review will be given during the week of each quiz.

Movement Presentations (20 points)

Students will be asked to present two movement showings throughout the course. These showings will demonstrate learned movement vocabulary, authentic movement generated by you and/ or group members and will draw from additional sources offered through class modules and discussions. Full details will be offered on Canvas and through live discussions.

Performance Review (10 points)

Students will be asked to view an online or virtual dance performance and write a review of their observations. Performance options and writing guidelines will be presented in Canvas.

Plagiarism means intentionally or unintentionally using another's words or ideas without giving credit. When using ideas or exact words from another person you must give citations for the source(s), even if those ideas are paraphrased in your own words. Using words, ideas, computer code, or any work by someone else without giving proper credit is plagiarism. Any time you use information from a source, you must cite it. In addition, as we are working with aspects of movement composition that may often make reference to other works of dance, no unaccredited lifting, copying, or sampling of dance material from YouTube or other sources will be permissible. These kinds of actions/uses are subject to penalties for plagiarism.***

Spontaneity: Due to the experiential nature of this course, the instructor retains the right to alter the syllabus as needed to accommodate class pace, interests, and/or special opportunities that may arise.
