instructor: Andrew Cao (he/him/his)

email: andrewcao@ufl.edu

phone: 917.340.1555

office: McCarty C 305

office hours: Mon/Wed 10:25am - 12:45pm or by appointment

Course Overview:

In this class, we will establish a strong foundation and understanding of various approaches to acting through song.

Course Objectives:

- create a process for working on musical theatre roles/songs/shows by exploring, integrating, and uniting various fundamental acting techniques.
- help the singing actor find fusion between playing a character and bringing one's authentic self to the role/song/show
- explore the different possibilities of using one's voice/voices that are specific to character
- find strong audition material that highlights the actor's instrument and their individuality
- further prepare students for success in the audition world through demystifying the audition process and learning strategies to best represent themselves in the audition room
- embrace reliability, work ethic, collaboration, and contribution as core elements to a performing artist's success
- expand knowledge of and familiarity with the musical theatre repertoire

Policies

Cell phones, Tablets, Computers, Etc. may only be used to take notes. Using your devices to check social media, browse the internet, or work on projects from another class is disrespectful to your classmates and detrimental to your learning potential. Students will be given 1 warning. The 3rd and subsequent infractions will result in a 5 point deduction from your Daily Participation Grade (-1 point for each category).

Leaving the Classroom - We will structure in a 5-minute break every class period, about half-way through. Students are expected to remain in the room during classtime as it is disruptive and unprofessional to come and go as you please. Please feel free to talk with me if there are extenuating circumstances.

Video-ing In Class Work: UF strictly prohibits publicly sharing any videos taken during the official classtime, this includes our Final Presentation.

Final Presentation: 20 points

This will be a showing during one of our last classes. We'll choose material that we learned throughout the semester and connect it all together through a structured performance. We will spend time in class reviewing and preparing this material before the final presentation date.

MFA students participating in this class as an Individual Study will be required to video themselves doing an additional song and submitting it to the instructor before the final presentation date.

Grading for the final presentation will be broken down as follows. Each of the following categories are worth 5 points.

Preparation:	Student displays confident familiarity with the material and is ready to perform at a professionally reliable level...
Execution	Student performs material accurately and as rehearsed...
Attitude, Effort, and Energy:	Student is positive, enthusiastic, supportive of other students, and commits 100% of their energy...
Growth & Improvement:	Student displays a level of growth and improvement through implementation of the lessons learned throughout the semester...
	5 points = throughout the entire performance
	4 points = throughout most of the performance
	3 points = throughout some of the performance
	2 points = throughout very little of the performance
	1 points = throughout none of the performance
	0 points = (student did not show up to participate)

University Policies

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center: <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/> It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code: <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Policy on Course Syllabi Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
