Class Schedule

Rehearsals: M & W - 9th - 10th period (4:05 – 6:00PM)
Steinbrenner Band Hall (SBH), other areas as assigned

Course Description: An ensemble of wind and percussion instrumentalists performing traditional and contemporary wind band and chamber ensemble repertoire, including selections from the western cannon as well as newly commissioned works. Membership in the ensemble is based on audition and permission of instructor. MUN 1130 and MUN 3133 count for General Education Humanities credit. A grade of “C” must be earned for General Education credit. The General Education Objectives may be found at this link:

<https://undergrad.aa.ufl.edu/general-education/gen-ed-program/subject-area-objectives/>

Course Learning Objectives: To expand the general content knowledge of each student in reference to the wind band repertoire and to develop the critical thinking and communication skills necessary to achieve an artistic level of individual and ensemble performance. Humanities courses must afford students the ability to think critically through the mastering of subjects concerned with human culture, especially literature, history, art, music, and philosophy, and must include selections from the Western canon. Humanities courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and theory or methodologies used within a humanities discipline or the humanities in general. Students will learn to identify and to analyze the relevant factors that shape thought. These courses emphasize clear and effective analysis and approach issues and problems from multiple perspectives. Instructional materials for this course consist of only those materials specifically reviewed, selected, and assigned by the instructor. The instructor is only responsible for these instructional materials.

Learning Activities: Ensemble rehearsal techniques to develop individual and ensemble skills in preparation for public performances.

Prerequisites: Audition and permission of Director.

Fees: This class has a $100 course fee for equipment, materials and supplies, as listed in the Schedule of Classes.

Course Grading Requirements and Policies:

Attendance is required at all classes. Students should be in their assigned chair ready to begin performing at 4:05pm; students who are late disrupt every other student in the ensemble.

There will be multiple performances during the semester. Attendance at all performances is required. Failure to attend a performance will result in a failing grade for the class. There are no excused absences the week of a concert. Inasmuch as attendance plays an integral part in the grading process, it is understood that the student must prepare their part satisfactorily, attend sectional rehearsals as scheduled, and be prepared to perform their part at any time in rehearsal. Absences from sectionals are treated the same as a class absence.

In order for an absence to be excused, the following three steps must be accomplished by the student prior to the absence:

- 1) Receive approval for the absence from the instructor prior to the absence
- 2) Make sure that the part is covered, and
- 3) Ensure that the folder is at the rehearsal with the approved sub.

Cell Phone Policy: Cell phones should be away from your person/performance area in a case or bag in the off position (not just silent) during all rehearsals and performances.

- Use of cell phones during rehearsal will lower the final grade by ½ a letter grade per occurrence.
- Two instances of being late (not in seat ready to begin at start of class) or leaving early will lower the final grade automatically by 1/2 a letter grade, EX: 1 tardy = A to A-, 2 A- to B+, etc..
- Unexcused absences will lower the final grade automatically by a letter grade, EX: 1 unexcused = A to B, 2 unexcused = B to C, etc..
- Failure to perform in a concert or scheduled performance will result in failure for the class.
- A minimum grade of C is required for general education credit.

ATTIRE for concerts is All Black (black shirt, tie, jackets, pants, shoes, socks for gentlemen and black dress or pants/top for women.) Dresses must be tea-length or longer and shoulders must be covered.

Academic Honor Policy

University of Florida students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Students Requesting Accommodations due to Disabilities

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.
